

Call for Papers

3rd RISE Workshop

Advancing Economic Policy Tools for Modern Macroeconomic Challenges

July 23-25, 2025
Waseda University – Tokyo

We are pleased to announce the 3rd RISE Workshop, to be held in Tokyo, Japan, on July 23-25, 2025. This workshop will bring together scholars, policymakers, and practitioners to explore innovative approaches in economic policy that address the complexities of today's global economy. The event will focus on developing and assessing tools and frameworks that help navigate unprecedented macroeconomic challenges, deepening our understanding of shock sources, macroeconomic consequences, and actionable policy strategies for enhancing economic resilience and stability.

Workshop Themes:

In an era defined by global interdependence and rapid transformation, traditional macroeconomic models are increasingly tested by unpredictable shocks, nonlinear dynamics, and emergent global risks. We invite papers that address these challenges and related themes, including but not limited to:

- Geopolitical Tensions and Economic Fragmentation
- Rare Disasters, Climate Change, and the Green Transition
- Financial Stability and Systemic Risk
- Optimal Design of Macro-Prudential Policies
- Digital Transformation, Fintech and Artificial Intelligence
- Shifts in Macroeconomic Regimes
- Rising Public and Private Debt Levels
- Addressing Inequality and Promoting Inclusive Growth
- Monetary Policy in a Low-Interest-Rate World
- Demographic Shifts and Aging Populations
- Macroeconomic Policy Coordination
- Fiscal and Monetary Policies Interaction in Times of Crisis
- Changes in Labor Market Trends
- Inflation and Stagflation
- Advanced Computational Methods for Nonlinear and Switching Systems

Submission Guidelines:

We welcome both theoretical and empirical contributions. Please submit your paper or extended abstract (outlining the paper's research question, methodology, and anticipated findings), through this Google form by Wednesday, April 30, 2025. Notification of accepted papers will be sent by May 16, 2025. Submissions should be in PDF format, following standard academic guidelines.
