

INVITATION

ERSA Symposium on Health reform, 1 July, Stellenbosch Institute for Advanced Study

Session 1: Perspectives on health reform in developing countries

08h30 Health reform: Trends and challenges Adam Wagstaff (World Bank)

09h10 Governance and accountability in health care: Lessons from the field Caryn Bredenkamp (World Bank)

09h30 Coffee break

Session 2: Context and key strategic debates on health reform

09h40 (Dis)agreements in South African health system reform debate Di McIntyre (UCT)

10h20 A critical evaluation of health sector debates in South Africa Alex van den Heever (WITS)

11h00 Introduction to discussion: Servaas van der Berg (US)

11h05 General Discussion

11h20 Coffee break

Session 3: Understanding demand and supply of health services

11h30 Managing the work force Laetitia Rispel (WITS)

12h10 Price and quality as constraints to meeting health needs Ronelle Burger (US)

12h30 Access barriers to Antiretroviral Treatment in South Africa Susan Cleary (UCT)

13h00 Introduction to discussion: Yogan Pillay (DoH) TBC

13h05 General Discussion

13h20 Lunch break

Session 4: Delivery of health services

14h10 Challenges in Resource Allocation and Health Service Purchasing Heather McLeod

14h50 Management and delivery of public health services Nicholas Crisp (Benguela)

15h30 Introduction to discussion: Frikkie Booysen (UFS)

15h35 General discussion

16h00 Closing remarks – end of day