“Relationship lending in the interbank market and the price of liquidity”

Presenter:

Professor Falko Fecht
(Frankfurt School of Finance and Management)

As a follow-on from the recent First Financial Economics Workshop (5-6 December 2013, Cape Town), Professor Falko Fecht - a leading expert on theoretical and empirical banking will be presenting a paper entitled: "Relationship lending in the interbank market and the price of liquidity" at the South African Reserve Bank on 10 March 2014 and the University of Stellenbosch on 13 March 2014.

Professor Fecht is best known for his work on the boundary between theory and empirics. For more information:

While interested participants are expected to attend a seminar closest to the area in which they reside (Johannesburg/Pretoria or Cape Town/Stellenbosch), a limited number of ERSA travel grants are available for those coming from elsewhere in the country.

However, spaces are limited and funding to attend either of the seminars is entirely at the discretion of the workshop organisers.

To apply, please email workshops@econrsa.org (using the title: "Financial Economics Workgroup Seminar"), before 21 February 2014, indicating clearly in the table below which seminar you wish to attend. For further information, please contact Co-Pierre Georg (co-pierre.georg@gsb.uct.ac.za).
